THE BLACK KEYS - BB&T CENTER

Tuesday November 5th, 2019

1 PANTHER PKWY | FT LAUDERDALE, FL

After a five-year hiatus spent exploring solo projects, Ohio natives Dan Auerbach and Patrick Carney of the Black Keys came back together in Nashville to record Let's Rock, the band's pared-down ninth studio album released earlier this year that drummer Carney has called "an homage to electric guitar." Co-headlining with fellow indie rockers Modest Mouse, the Black Keys set out on a 31-date arena that lands at BB&T Center this November with openers Shannon & the Clams. (TICKETS & INFO)

THIEVERY CORPORATION & KARL DENSON'S TINY UNIVERSE

WEDNESDAY | NOVEMBER 6TH 2019 | 8:00PM

THIEVERY CORPORATION

How many highly successful musical artists do you know that have thrived for 20 years without a radio hit, a big budget video, or major label backing? Moreover, have managed to do high-profile TV appearances, own and operate their own independent label since day one, sell several million albums and continue to expand their fan base across the globe each year. KARL DENSON'S TINY UNIVERSE

KARL DENSON

Karl Denson never disappoints. I have been lucky enough to see him many times. Most recently while he was touring w. the Rolling Stones.

Do yourself a favor and get out to check out this show and support some great artists!
